"You shall count seven weeks of years, seven times seven years, so that the time of the seven weeks of years shall give you forty-nine years. Then you shall sound the loud trumpet on the tenth day of the seventh month. On the Day of Atonement you shall sound the trumpet throughout all your land. And you shall consecrate the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you, when each of you shall return to his property and each of you shall return to his clan. That fiftieth year shall be a jubilee for you; in it you shall neither sow nor reap what grows of itself nor gather the grapes from the undressed vines.
(Lev 25:8-11)

There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judaea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. (Luke 1:5)

And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course, (Luke 1:8)

And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, (Luke 1:26)

And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren. (Luke 1:36)

Sabbatical Years
135BC	Antiquities of the Jews' Book 13:8:1 The year 135-134 BCE (or the year 177 of the Seleucid Era) was noted to be a 7th year by Josephus: "... there came around the year in which the Jews are wont to remain inactive, for they observe this custom every seventh year, just as on the seventh day." The same year was also noted to be a year of 'rest' in 'Wars of the Jews'. Josephus states the following: "the year of rest came on, upon which the Jews rest every seventh year as they do on every seventh day".
44BC	Antiquities, Book 14:10:5-6 - The decree stated when Caius Caesar was consul for the fifth time he ordered in the 2nd year of the current land-use agreement. If the current year (44-43 BCE) did correspond to the cited 2nd year of the land-use agreement then it might be possible to interpret this passage to mean that the respective year corresponded to a 7th year
37BC	Antiquities of the Jews', 14:16:2, 15:1:2 his year--the year when Herod was declared king at Jerusalem--is referred to as a 'hebdomatikon' year or a Sabbatical year
4BC	Herod the Great dies on Nisan 1 and is buried 3 days before the feast of Unleavened Bread
2BC	Herod's son, Philip, started construction of Caesarea Philippi.
41CE	King Agrippa I started building the expansive third wall around the northern parts of Jerusalem.
69CE	Seder Olam, 30 Rabbi Jose (Yose) ben Khalapha commented that the year prior to the destruction of the Second Temple was a Sabbatical year B. Taan., 29a The Taanith indicates that the Second Temple was destroyed in a post-Sabbatical year
132CE	Bar Kokhba revolt of the Jews against the Romans.

Things we know from History
- Yahusha was not born on a sabbatical year because the Jews were paying taxes that year and they had an agreement with Rome to not levy taxes on the 7th year
- King Harrod the Great died in 4BC just after issuing the decree to kill the children in Bethlehem and his own eldest son Antipater
- Based on the above we can run on the assumption that Yahusha's birth occurred sometime in 4BC or before
- Jerusalem was slam packed with people upon Joseph & Mary's arrival, this could indicate it was during a pilgrimage feast
Things that are not so clear
- Scripture does not indicate if the star the "wise" men saw appeared upon or before Yahusha's birth, just that they saw it 2 years prior to their arrival
- Scripture does not indicate how long Joseph and Mary spent in Egypt prior to Harrod's death
- We are also assuming that Zachariah had to be serving at the temple in the 10th, 11th, or 12th month when he received the vision, and upon
